Day 2 : Munich

Free at leisure/ Possible excursion (not included)

Neuschwanstein. The renowned castle was built by King Ludwig II surrounded by a picturesque mountain scenery and was prompted by the idea of rebuilding the castle in the genuine style of the old German knights’ castles. Feel like a King for only one day! Proceed to Fuessen later on. Rich in history this town awaits you with many churches, palaces and monasteries, but also the natural sceneries are very attractive there. Return to Munich in the afternoon and stop by at the picturesque Allianz Arena on your way. Overnight: Munich

Free at leisure/ Possible excursion (not included)

Garmisch-Partenkirchen. Germany’s highest mountain, the Zugspitze, is located there and can easily be reached by taking the vintage cogwheel train. The last bit to the very top of the mountain will be gone by cable car, it is only a few minutes to go. The view is unforgettable - promised. One of the world’s longest and steepest cable cars takes you all the way down to the Eibsee again. Return to Munich in the afternoon and enjoy some free time for shopping on your own upon arrival.
